The As-Sunnah Foundation (Bengali: অস-সুন্নাহ ফাউন্ডেশন) is a non-political, non-profit religious charity organization based in Bangladesh. It engages in various service activities, including education, religious outreach, and humanitarian efforts. The organization was founded in 2017 by Bangladeshi Islamic scholar Sheikh Ahmadullah, who has served as its chairman since its establishment. Under the foundation, initiatives such as the As-sunnah Skill Development Institute and the Madrasatus-sunnah program have been launched. Additionally, the foundation carries out a range of service-oriented activities, including emergency relief distribution to flood victims, clothing distribution to those affected by cold, food distribution to the hungry, and a nationwide tree-planting program.
