The National Central Bureau of Interpol of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Russia or ?????????????? ?????????????? ????? ?????????? ??? ??????, is a unit of the Ministry of Internal Affairs for Russia's participation in the activities of the International Criminal Police Organization. It was formed as part of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the USSR in 1991 after the Soviet Union was admitted to Interpol following a vote at the session of the Interpol General Assembly in Ottawa on September 27, 1990. Since then, September 27 is considered the birthday of Interpol in Russia. In 1996, a Presidential Decree of July 30, 1996 was prepared and signed, establishing the legal framework for the activities of Interpol in Russia. It carries out its activities exclusively in the field of combating ordinary crimes, without affecting crimes of a political, military, religious and racial nature.
