About the project:

Fireflies Logo Reveal is a cinematic and peaceful animation with dynamically animated particle trails and flares that look like fireflies which creatively fly across the screen, twists and intertwines elegantly revealing your logo. This animation can be used as an intro or opener to films, movies, TV shows, commercials, new product launches, promotions, upcoming events, presentations and slideshows. There are no plugins required, works with any language and renders extremely fast. You can customize the project with ease – everything is linked to a control layer.
