1Malaysia (pronounced One Malaysia in English and Satu Malaysia in Malay) was a political slogan coined by Malaysian former Prime Minister Najib Razak in 2009, with the stated goal of promoting ethnic harmony, national unity, and efficient governance. However, it quickly became embroiled in controversy.

After the 2018 Malaysian general election, in which the long-time Barisan Nasional's government collapsed with its defeat and Pakatan Harapan's ascendant as the new ruling government, along with Najib's ousting, the concept was abolished and replaced with Sayangi Malaysiaku, a concept that was created by Mahathir Mohamad, together with other major changes made by his government during his premiership.
