Suria (formerly known as Suria FM) is a Malay language-private radio station under the Star Media Radio Group, a company owned by Star Media Group Berhad. Suria FM first aired on 24 November 2005. The station's programming is targeted toward modern Malays, aged between 25 and 35. The station interacts with listeners through social media. The broadcasts feature a mix of local all-time favourites and chart-topping hits with some of the latest Indonesian and English K-pop songs.

As of 2018, Suria remains as one of the top five Malay-language radio stations of choice.

On 9 November 2019, Suria ceased transmission in Kota Kinabalu, Sabah.
