SYNOPSIS: A treasure hunting crew bites off more than they can chew in this underwater white-knuckle thriller.

Finding the long-lost wreck of the warship USS Charlotte has been the lifelong pursuit of Levi, an aging expat running a tourist dive business in the British Virgin Islands together with recent college dropout Noah. When the USS Charlotte emerges for the first time in eighty years after a tropical storm, Noah's friends visiting the island insist for them all to do a once-in-a-lifetime dive on the newly discovered wreck before it's handed over to the authorities. The dream dive rapidly turns into a nightmare as they become trapped in the darkness of the Charlotte's interior, thirty meters down and with a dwindling air supply. And then they discover that they are not alone.

A group of old college friends reunite on a Caribbean scuba diving trip exploring the wreckage of a WWII battleship and find themselves trapped inside the underwater labyrinth of rusted metal surrounded by great white sharks.
